

Travel hacks 4 – Walking for pleasure and days out

The following travel hacks offer some ideas for those looking to get out and about safely this summer using less busy transport options whilst at the same time often saving time and money.

Hack #1 - Enjoy the Wellbeing Walk Via Somers Town if walking between Euston to St. Pancras or King's Cross

If you are walking between Euston and St. Pancras or King's Cross, you may prefer to follow the signed Wellbeing Walk via Somers Town to avoid the higher levels of pollution on the more direct route along Euston Road.

Hack #2 Cross the Thames by foot tunnel

There are foot tunnels under the Thames at both Greenwich and Woolwich. The Greenwich tunnel takes you between the Isle of Dogs and Greenwich, with an entrance next to the Cutty Sark while the Woolwich tunnel links Old Woolwich in east London to North Woolwich in Newham.

Hack #3 Riverside and green spaces walks

Bus route 85 connects to the Thames at Kingston and Putney via Richmond Park, Wimbledon Common and Putney Heath. A map of the area can be found here.

Hack #4 Epping Forest walks

Walks in Epping Forest are easily accessible from Chingford (London Overground Chingford route and bus routes 97, 179, 212, 313, 379, 385, 397 and 444) or Snaresbrook, Loughton or Theydon Bois (all on the Central line). Please see a map of the forest here.

Hack #5 Hainault Forest walks

Walks in Hainault Forest are easily accessible using bus routes 150 or 247 from Hainault (Central line).
