What do passengers want from London's smaller rail stations?

1 Purpose of report

- 1.1. To give members the opportunity to review the report on small stations prior to formal publication.

2 Recommendation

- 2.1. That the report on small stations is agreed for publication.

3 Information

- 3.1. London TravelWatch decided to examine the 'small' stations in the London railway area and to investigate passenger priorities related to them. The report makes recommendations for future action to improve the operation of small stations.

4 Equalities and inclusion implications

- 4.1. This report poses no specific equalities and inclusion implications.

5 Financial implications

- 5.1. No specific financial implications for London TravelWatch arise from this report.

6 Legal powers and financial implications

- 6.1. Section 252A of the Greater London Authority Act 1999 places a duty upon London TravelWatch (as the London Transport Users Committee) to keep under review matters affecting the interests of the public in relation to railway passenger and station services provided wholly or partly within the London railway area, and to make representations about them to such persons as it thinks appropriate.
