Confidential: Season ticket research

1 Purpose of report

- 1.1. To provide members with a confidential draft report on the findings of London TravelWatch's research on season tickets.

2 Recommendation

- 2.1. That members agree the main findings and recommendations of the report.

3 Information

- 3.1. The report is currently in draft form. We intend to improve the formatting, add photos where appropriate and tighten up some of the text before publication.

4 Equalities and inclusion implications

- 4.1. This report poses no specific equalities and inclusion implications.

5 Financial implications

- 5.1. No specific financial implications for London TravelWatch arise from this report.

6 Legal powers and financial implications

- 6.1. Section 248 of the Greater London Authority Act 1999 requires London TravelWatch (as the London Transport Users Committee) to consider, and where it appears to it to be desirable, to make recommendations with respect to any service or facility provided by or for (or in the case of hackney carriages and private hire vehicles, licensed by) Transport for London, other than a matter relating to the transportation of freight, if it has been the subject of representations made by or on behalf of users of that service or facility. Section 252B of the same Act places a similar duty on the Committee in respect of users or potential users of railway services provided wholly or partly within the "London railway area" as defined under the provisions of the Railways Act 1993.
